An Afternoon with Ian Evans - TODAY

In January 2015, as part of a 4-man international expedition, Ian Evans joined an elite group of adventurers by becoming one of fewer than 400 who have skied from the coast of Antarctica to the South Pole. On what has been called "The hardest expedition on earth", the team took 44 days to cover the 950KMS to the South Pole at 9,300 feet above sea level. Join us as Ian recounts the adventure through images and video. Have the opportunity to check out Ian's polar gear and stay on for the Q&A session. All funds raised will be shared by the members of the Centre Wellington Refugee Network (cwrn.ca) -- which includes Project Welcome -- to support the our community-wide efforts to welcome up to three Syrian families into our community.

Sunday, January 17 2-4pm

The Gorge Cinema

$20 adults, $10 youth (Get tickets by going to cwrn.ca, or speak with Curt Hammond, Bonnie Norris, or Rev. Greg)

This month, we're hearing about the story of Esther. To get more out of the reflections, you might want to read ahead. Here are the chapters Greg will be covering each week.

January 10 Esther 1-2

January 17 Esther 3-4

January 24 Esther 5-6

January 31 Esther 7-10

February 7 We'll be having a Purim celebration.

Don't have a Bible? Want to check out a new translation? Ask Rev. Greg! You can also go to www.biblegateway.com, which is a great resource.

Purim Party!!

February 7 during worship, for all ages

Purim is when Jews celebrate the story of Esther. It's a party, a sort of Jewish Mardi Gras. So let's celebrate! We're going to do our own version of some Purim traditions

- ... hearing the story of Esther again, complete with sound effects. Bring noisemakers!
- ... giving to charity by having a special offering for Project Welcome!
- ... sharing sweets. Bring some candy to pass around.
- ... enjoying special Purim pastries called Hamantaschen (Hamen's pockets)
- ... dressing up; wear any sort of costume or mask.

Exploring Our Faith Together is a new conversation group, meeting every 2nd Wednesday from 10am--noon in Elora United Church's Bissell Room. Bring your beliefs and doubts, questions and wonders and let's talk about them together. No experience needed, except the experiences you bring. We'll be using the United Church's A Song of Faith as a springboard for our conversations. Begins January 27. No need to register, just come as you can.

Faith*

Wesley for Armchair Theologians

John Wesley ... started the Methodist church, but remained a loyal Anglican his entire life ... composed treasured hymns, though his brother Charles wrote better ones ... encouraged a spirituality of heart-warmed faith, small-group piety and social justice ... is a spiritual ancestor of both the United Church and the Pentecostalism.

Want to find out about this amazing church-builder, theological thinking and spiritual leader? We'll be gathering the 1st Wednesday of every month, starting March 2. We'll meet in Elora United Church's Bissell Room, 7-9 pm. Please register by speaking with Rev. Greg or emailing him at revgreg@bellnet.ca.

You'll need a copy of William Abraham's Wesley for Armchair Theologians, published by Westminster John Knox Press. You can get one through Roxanne's Reflections in Fergus. It's also available on Kindle.

The Book Discussion Group will begin A Religion of One's Own by Thomas Moore starting next Sunday, January 24th. Speak to Menai Wardle or John Markvart, if you are interested in participating. We will meet at 7:00 pm in the home of Maureen Kay, 0472 South River Road. The discussion will be about the Introduction and Part One.

Women of all ages, you are invited to a special Women's Spiritual Potluck evening this Friday, Jan. 22, at 7 pm at Elora United Church (Bissell Room). Come and be nourished by God as you experience and explore many different ways to connect with your Creator. The sanctuary will be set up with many different Christian spiritual practices. This is a time for you to rest and renew yourself through God. After experiencing the spiritual practices on your own, we will have time to reflect together. For more information talk with Barb (519-846-2542).

Become Part of Project Welcome

We are a community-wide effort to support a refugee family from Syria so they have a smooth immigration experience into Canada. We want them to arrive in our country with the physical, emotional, social, and financial supports in place which they will need to successfully integrate and thrive in their new community.
