“Let us sing of greater things” An Exploration of Messiah
Join us this fall for lively learning and conversation about Handel's masterpiece

Some said it was too sacred to perform in a theatre! Others, that it was too theatrical to perform in a church! Perhaps neither were correct. Handel's great composition will not be confined to the sacred or the secular, nor will it be barred from either space. Maybe that's why Messiah continues to stir so many souls. Its subject is the Messiah Jesus, though his name is never mentioned nor his words quoted in the text. Messiah explores the profound and world reshaping meaning of Jesus, using only words from sacred Scripture. It does so with music that enlivens us, pouring out emotions of sorrow and delight.

Thursday evenings (every 2nd week)
7:00pm to 8:30pm
Continues; Oct 26, Nov 9, Nov 23, Dec 7
Elora United Church's Bissell Room

Elora UC Task Groups Update and Staffing Changes

As you know, the Elora UC boards are continuing to work around building short and long-term plans to deal with our budget shortfall. We will have a full written update for the congregation in early November.

Since the summer we have taken a number of actions and decisions, some of which have been very difficult. The hardest has been the decision to merge our Treasurer and Secretary staffing positions into one. Based solely on the need to reduce our payroll expenses, the board has made the decision that starting on November 1, our current administrator Beverly Bond will take on our treasurer responsibilities, and our current treasurer Kim Saunders will no longer be employed by Elora United. Rolling the two positions into one will result in significant cost savings.

This was a very hard decision for the board and is no reflection on the hard work that Kim has shown our congregation over the past 11 years. We are grateful to Kim for all that she has done for us as a member of our staff team. She and her accounting skills have been a gift to our church. We will have the chance to formally thank Kim later this year. We are also grateful to Bev for taking on this additional work and responsibility.

The scope of this decision reflects how committed we are to finding a way to keep Elora United viable for years to come. While there is no magic wand to our financial pressures, this decision along with other steps should have us in a better position at year-end than our original forecast. We will share those details in our next written update.

Our thanks to all staff and congregation members for their dedication and commitment to Elora United.

-The Mission and Resources board

Elora UC welcomes and celebrates all couples who wish to be married within our church-community

This decision was made this week by Elora UC's Mission Board,* approving a change to our marriage policy. (In the past, we have held what might be called a "traditional" understanding of marriage as between a man and a woman.) The Board decided to review our policy, part of continuing to seek the way of Jesus.

Thanks to all those who shared their thoughts and held us in prayer through our discernment.

Many among us will celebrate this decision. Others among us will be pained by it. We are a diverse congregation. While we share our trust in God and desire to live as God's people, we often disagree about how this looks in particular situations. That's okay! Faithful community is about holding to each other in the midst of disagreement. It is God's gift.

What does it mean to welcome and walk together within the diversity of our sexual orientations and gender identities?

Our 'marriage decision' is not the end. It is another step along the way discerning how we authentically follow Jesus in our time and place. In the next while, look for opportunities we'll be having to learn and explore together.

As always, our ministry team (Barb or Greg) is glad to talk with you about your thoughts and concerns.
